November 2019 Newsletter

President

2019/2020 will be a busy and hot season at the beach. Thank you to all the 240 Active members & 500 Junior members that renewed to support Clovelly Patrols. We also have 156 Long Service and 16 Life Members that also contribute to the club of which some are receiving awards for their service to lifesaving and Clovelly SLSC soon.

Many thanks to Randwick Council who once again continued their sponsorship of Clovelly SLSC with the annual grant of $30,000, as well as our other sponsors Channel 9, Ganellan, Mark McPherson of McGrath Real Estate, Mopstar and Journey Masters.

Attached to the newsletter below is a list of the office bearers and key roles of people that have volunteered their time to the club this season. Don't hesitate to say hello. Without volunteers Clovelly SLSC would not be the club it is - once again thank you to all the volunteers that make this SLSC the best family club - not being biased at all!

Hope to see you at the club soon.

Bryce Wilde, President Clovelly SLSC

COMPETITION NEWS BATTLE OF THE BEACH! Sunday 10th Nov 2019

The girls got their revenge in the final of the two-person relay and there was some rough and tumble stuff from the boys in the fiercely-contested lead-up sprints and flags at the Clovelly SLSC Beach Events program.

But the spirit of fun competition won on the day and "all were winners" at the events which are open to all age groups. Those taking part were: Ella Hodnett, Rhian Atchison, Stan Daly, Tom Condell, Ben Boyle, Cormac Hickey, Will Rasmussen, Charlie Miller and Will Pembroke (pictured with organiser John McNamee).

Special thanks to Patrol Captain Ros Manuel for encouraging some of her team to take part and for recognising that competition plays a vital role in the world of surf lifesaving. Patrol 6 earns 24 points towards the end of season Patrol Team of the Year competition.

Anyone from Juniors to Masters interested in competing for Clovelly SLSC should contact Director of Competition Keiran Stone, Beach Captain Jenny McNamee or Board, Ski and Swim Captain John McNamee.
